Assuming I did this right and hoping this is an appropriate place to post it:

The Fate of Zonker

You did use the calendar right. I edited the link down so that it doesn't show up so huge and blot out half the thread, though.

Note: you can do this by typing "url=link_address" in the brackets, followed by a subject line such as "The Fate of Zonker," and then the /url in brackets after that. Excluding the quotation marks. For future reference. ;)

As this is a notice for an RP event, however, I'm moving it to the Game Announcements board located near the bottom of this forum.

This is going to be a very very tough scene to be involved with for me. But I plan to be there.

As do I, if at all possible.
Besides, the Chronicles could use another chapter.

Damn you, AOL!

::mutters and snickers and grumbles::

---

I'd be there, but there's that little issue of it being on AOL, and I've long since dropped the AOL program. I've got AIM, but I doubt the room would work the same.

eh.. who knows. we'll see

You should be able to access a PR by AIM. Have someone Buddy Invite you.

It would have to be set up as a BuddyChat for that to work. Meaning whoever opens the room would have to use the buddylist BuddyChat button instead of the "start your own chat" method from the drop-down menu up top. If that made any sense at all.

ps: You better not kill Zonker or I'll find you and do horrible, awful things to you. I swear it. (I do not promise that these are things you will not like, though). :unsure:

I'll sell tickets to that said even of Ehz finding you and doing unplesant things to you.

Perhaps I'll cut you in on the deal ;)

I demand a cut. I'll settle for 20%, plus it being broadcast on YouTube forever.

On a note more relative to the original topic: please be certain to write something up about it for the next issue of Ubique's. I'll try to be there to lurk, but knowing me I'll probably forget. If anyone attending happens to log and wouldn't mind sending me a copy, I'll love you forever.

Thanks to all who participated.

Any others who wish logs or simply to know what went down can IM or PM me...

Ehz... where do I send yours?

Yes! Thank you so much! I love reading things I miss out on. Sorry, but a coma claimed me last night.

For the record, I'm the same name practically EVERYWHERE. Ehzoterik on AOL, here, DM, GreaterRealms... You name it. For log sending purposes, the e-mail I check the most is ehzoterik@aol.com, and it's the easiest. Though if there's doubt, there's also ehzoterik@mutualendeavors.org and such. I check that one regularly too. For future reference.

ps: I fully expect a write-up on this in the next issue of Ubique's Monthly. Send me a headline as well as a character update!

Yo Zonk, can you send the log my way too? drafting a piece or two about this and I wanna make sure things are done right and what. and out of curiosity...think my Ada huchinson could do a bit on it for DM as well?

Oh, by the way, I hereby dub thee Gillette Man. Nobody does closer shaves than you! Oi yah!
