Yay! A part two! :D

"Oooh, predefined limits. Do we have a cardboard box?"

I'm sure you know that this made me lol super hard. XD As soon as I read it, that little surprise blip from the game jingled in the back of my head. ROFL!

Curious to see where all this is going. As curious as I am about how Arachne even met and paired up with Morgan in the first place. Not to mention what their mission is here. That ties into the curious to see where it's going part, though.

Give us more!

I love love love the title of this thread, also. It's geek-chic. Arachne and Morgan Team Up Adventure Episode 1: Made me smile.
